Forming part of a development of 10 large houses dating back to c 1911, this wonderful property designed by Parker and Unwin is virtually opposite the Heath Extension.

The property is of 'Arts and Crafts' design, featuring wonderful decorative brickwork, oak framed lead lined windows, hipped roofs and dormers with first floor loggias (open sided area) above the arched passage ways. Internally, the property has been majestically transformed by the current owners, creating an indulgent & luxurious environment yet sympathetic to the history and charm of the original design.

The restoration of the house been carried out with the finest of materials and forms the perfect blend of contemporary and period detail. The accommodation offers an abundance of entertaining areas, five bedrooms, four bathrooms and a beautiful mature garden.

Heath Close is just off Hampstead Way with the houses set well back off the street with their own large front gardens. This location is ideal for those lovers of Hampstead Heath and it is also within 1.5m of all the cafe's, shops, and restaurants of Hampstead Village. Transport links are at Golders Green (0.6m) where there are connections to the City & the West End via the Northern Line.
